Banco de Oro Universal Bank wins Leading Counterparty in the Philippines Award for 2012

Singapore's DBS, China's ICBC also amongst the domestic banks picked out for the assessment of the transaction banking services and capabilities of Asian banks.

- The largest bank by assets in the Philippines and ranked 198th Asiawide by the AB500
- The bank holds the best credit ratings in Philippines
- BDO works with more than 20 international banks on the transaction banking front

Jakarta, Indonesia, April 24th 2013 – Banco de Oro Universal Bank (BDO) has been named as winner of the Leading Counterparty Bank in the Philippines for the year 2012 during the 14th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at Ritz Carlton Kuningan in Jakarta on April 24th 2013.

Small medium enterprises (SMEs) make up to 90% of the Philippines economy. BDO has leveraged on this large SME base to increase its transaction banking revenue by taking initiatives to specifically cater to this group. An example is the bank's "Grow Your Business with BDO" SME Forums which is aimed at gaining a better understanding SMEs to enable BDO to create products that are specific to the clients' needs.

About 1000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.

The Asian Banker The Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards 2013

About the Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards for Transaction Banking programme was instituted in 2001 to identify emerging best practices and leadership in the cash management, trade finance and payments industries amongst international and domestic financial institutions operating in the Asia Pacific region and the Middle East. The programme is also a repository of evolving best practices from which players can benchmark their own products and processes over the long term.

The Board of Advisors

The following distinguished personalities served as members of the advisory council for the selection of this year's winners. They bring to bear tremendous expertise and global perspectives to the conduct of the annual meeting.

- James Cullen, former senior vice president, Wells Fargo
- Mathew Welch, former global head of banks, Standard Chartered
- Damian Glendinning, treasurer, Lenovo and president, Assoc. of Corporate Treasurers
- Charles Legrand, former South Asia regional head, SWIFT

The Selection Criteria

We believe that a leading transaction bank is one that is able to be intimately involved in helping their corporate or financial institution clients take advantage of all the drivers transforming supply and value chain dynamics today by maximising their trade, cash or payments needs in a way that helps them manage their credit, liquidity and financial competitiveness in their respective marketplace.

An outstanding player in the transaction banking industry should demonstrate the following attributes:

1. Outstanding annual performance of the transaction banking unit
2. Intimately involved in helping their clients
3. Comprehensive range of services
4. Strong penetration and efficiency of innovative products
5. A high and seamless level of straight-through-processing
6. Attained a high level of satisfaction
7. Ability to complete to win new market share
8. Ability to secure new and complex deals

The Selection Process

The selection process begins in November and ends in March of the following year. The initial selection is through a survey and desk research done by the research team at The Asian Banker. The identified candidates are then subject to further scrutiny through interviews with third parties, including local banking journalists and analysts who have had contact with the candidates, peers and third party reviews. The shortlisted candidates are then submitted for a review by the board of advisors, based on a comparative evaluation done by the research team.
