CBA wins the award for Best Cash Management Bank in Australia for 2013

- CBA is the country's largest contactless payments provider and was the first Australian bank to introduce a contactless payment solution
- The bank has a large number of users for its CommBiz Mobile application and is the first to deliver corporate payment capabilities with funds transfer functions between accounts
- CBA launched a slew of innovative applications, most notably "Pi" which revolutionised the payment environment and "Leo" which converts any Apple device into a secure merchant terminal

Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, May 22nd 2014—CBA has been named the winner of the Best Cash Management Bank in Australia Award for the year 2013 during the 15th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre in Kuala Lumpur on May 21st 2014.

In a short span of three years, the most popular mode of banking log-ins has shifted from desktops to mobile devices. CBA launched various innovative applications to capitalise on this change. This has served them well. As the largest contactless payments provider in Australia today, it is able to launch applications that meet the needs of customers.

"Pi" and "Leo" are probably the most innovative ideas out of the basket of applications that CBA has produced. "Pi" serves as an open platform that provides businesses options to download, create and upload customised applications that can be specified to business requirements. These enhance face-to-face customer interaction at point of sale without compromising security. "Leo" is a light-weight, compact smart-case device that can convert any Apple device into a secure merchant terminal which accepts card payments. The device can be used at various points of sale. CBA is receiving positive feedback and experiencing growth in the pickup of this service.

About 1,000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.

The Asian Banker The Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards 2014

About the Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards for Transaction Banking programme was instituted in 2001 to identify emerging best practices and leadership in the cash management, trade finance and payments industries amongst international and domestic financial institutions operating in the Asia Pacific and the Middle East regions. The programme is also a repository of evolving best practices from which players can benchmark their own products and processes over the long term.

The Board of Advisors

The following distinguished personalities served as members of the advisory council for the selection of this year's winners. They bring to bear tremendous expertise and global perspectives to the conduct of the annual meeting.

- James Cullen, former senior vice president, Wells Fargo
- Mathew Welch, former global head of banks, Standard Chartered Bank
- Damian Glendinning, treasurer, Lenovo and president, Assoc. of Corporate Treasurers

The Selection Criteria

We believe that a leading transaction bank is one that is able to be intimately involved in helping their corporate or financial institution clients take advantage of all the drivers transforming supply and value chain dynamics today by maximising their trade, cash or payments needs in a way that helps them manage their credit, liquidity and financial competitiveness in their respective marketplace.

An outstanding player in the transaction banking industry should demonstrate the following attributes:

1. Outstanding annual performance of the transaction banking unit
2. Intimately involved in helping their clients
3. Comprehensive range of services
4. Strong penetration and efficiency of innovative products
5. A high and seamless level of straight-through-processing
6. Attained a high level of satisfaction
7. Ability to compete to win new market share
8. Ability to secure new and complex deals

The Selection Process

The selection process begins in November and ends in March of the following year. The initial selection is through a survey and desk research done by the research team at The Asian Banker. The identified candidates are then subject to further scrutiny through interviews with third parties, including local banking journalists and analysts who have had contact with the candidates, peers and third party reviews. The shortlisted candidates are then submitted for a review by the board of advisors, based on a comparative evaluation done by the research team.
