Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia, May 22nd 2014—China Minsheng Bank has been named the winner of the Best China Small Business Trade Finance Bank for the year 2013 during the 15th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre in Kuala Lumpur on May 21st 2014.

China Minsheng Bank's balance of small & micro loans stands at $65.7 billion for the year 2013, increasing by 27.69%. Its customer base for this business segment is 1.9 million, rising by 91.97% and the rate of non-performing loan is controlled at 0.48%, which leads the industry.

The bank's key businesses, such as factoring and structured trade finance, is well ahead of its peers. In the year under review, the volume of factoring business is $17.6billion, and there were 172,000 of such loans given out. Its commodity trade finance business focuses on the metal mining, energy and agricultural industries and is continuing its trend of product innovation in the Photovoltaic/Petroleum industry, Ship financing and factoring business.

About 1,000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.

The Asian Banker The Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards 2014

About the Achievement in Transaction Banking Awards

The Asian Banker Achievement Awards for Transaction Banking programme was instituted in 2001 to identify emerging best practices and leadership in the cash management, trade finance and payments industries amongst international and domestic financial institutions operating in the Asia Pacific and the Middle East regions. The programme is also a repository of evolving best practices from which players can benchmark their own products and processes over the long term.

The Board of Advisors

The following distinguished personalities served as members of the advisory council for the selection of this year's winners. They bring to bear tremendous expertise and global perspectives to the conduct of the annual meeting.

- James Cullen, former senior vice president, Wells Fargo
- Mathew Welch, former global head of banks, Standard Chartered Bank
- Damian Glendinning, treasurer, Lenovo and president, Assoc. of Corporate Treasurers

The Selection Criteria

We believe that a leading transaction bank is one that is able to be intimately involved in helping their corporate or financial institution clients take advantage of all the drivers transforming supply and value chain dynamics today by maximising their trade, cash or payments needs in a way that helps them manage their credit, liquidity and financial competitiveness in their respective marketplace.

An outstanding player in the transaction banking industry should demonstrate the following attributes:

1. Outstanding annual performance of the transaction banking unit
2. Intimately involved in helping their clients
3. Comprehensive range of services
4. Strong penetration and efficiency of innovative products
5. A high and seamless level of straight-through-processing
6. Attained a high level of satisfaction
7. Ability to compete to win new market share
8. Ability to secure new and complex deals

The Selection Process

The selection process begins in November and ends in March of the following year. The initial selection is through a survey and desk research done by the research team at The Asian Banker. The identified candidates are then subject to further scrutiny through interviews with third parties, including local banking journalists and analysts who have had contact with the candidates, peers and third party reviews. The shortlisted candidates are then submitted for a review by the board of advisors, based on a comparative evaluation done by the research team.
