Hong Kong, April 14th 2015—Bank Negara Indonesia won the Best Cash Management Bank and Best Counterparty Bank in Indonesia award for 2015 during the 16th Asian Banker Summit. The ceremony was held at the Four Seasons on April 14th 2015.

Bank Negara Indonesia is a leader in providing solutions to the public and government sector.

Its competitiveness lies in the advanced features, customised data reporting, automation capability and monitoring of its cash management solution, which has seen its business volume grow by 76% and increased its market share.

The bank rolled out a number of innovative solutions that include the BNI e-Tax Kepabeanan, National Health Insurance payment, Sistem Pembendaharaan Anggaran Negara (SPAN) and Fiduciary Guarantee payment.

It is also looking to maintain its leadership in the market by continuing to focus on major industry sectors, improve operational efficiency and create innovative products and services to provide excellent services to clients.

About 1,000 delegates attended the event, consisting of industry specialists, senior bankers, regulators, service providers and decision makers from leading institutions in Asia, the US, Europe and Latin America, where opinions and responses of practitioners from across the region to global issues are shaped.

The Transaction Banking Awards under the Asian Banker Business Achievement Awards are widely acknowledged by the financial services industry as the highest possible accolade available to professionals and banks in the industry as recognised in the Asia Pacific region.

The Transaction Banking Awards evaluate banks' achievements in cash management, payments, and trade finance. The winners for these awards are determined through a combination of surveys, interviews and field research by The Asian Banker's research staff. A stringent three-month evaluation process based on a balanced and transparent scorecard had been used to determine the winners.
