About the Financial Markets Awards

This programme has been administered by The Asian Banker since 2001 initially as part of our prestigious annual Business Achievement Awards programme. Its goal is to recognise excellence in those institutions that have demonstrated a superior business strategy based on strong underlying fundamentals, highlight emerging best practices in establishing robust market structures and identify challenges in executing sound operational processes which market participants can both learn and benefit from.

The Board of Advisors

The following distinguished personalities served as members of the advisory council for the selection of this year's winners. They bring to bear tremendous expertise and global perspectives to the conduct of the annual meeting.

- Paul Chow, former Chief Executive, Hong Kong Exchange
- Thomas McMahon, MD/CEO at UD Trading Group
- Professor Emeritus Alain Chevalier, Professor of Finance, ESCP, Europe
- Lieven Van den Brande, ex-CIO, Hong Kong Mercantile Exchange

The Selection Criteria

Organizations under consideration must broadly demonstrate a clear track-record of excellence and commitment in the following domains:

1. Financial performance
2. Business continuity and sustainability
3. New product innovation and listing
4. Efficiency and capacity
5. Risk management
6. Process and technology
7. Major achievements and contribution to the industry
8. Investor protection and education
9. Transparency and quality of disclosure
10. Client references and customer service levels

The Selection Process

The selection process begins in November and ends in March of the following year. The initial selection is through a survey and desk research done by the research team at The Asian Banker. The identified candidates are then subject to further scrutiny through interviews with third parties, including local banking journalists and analysts who have had contact with the candidates, peers and third party reviews. The shortlisted candidates are then submitted for a review by the board of advisors, based on a comparative evaluation done by the research team.
