Singapore, April 18th, 2010 – The Asian Banker “Strongest Banks in Asia” awards were announced today in a ceremony in Singapore. An exclusive audience of top industry leaders from around the world witnessed the award ceremony for 18 of the top professionals and organisations in the banking industry in the Asia Pacific and Gulf region.

This is the highest award programme of its kind for individual and institutional achievement in the banking industry in the Asia Pacific region today. The award looks at the long-term performance of bank leaders by assessing them over a three-year period, and plays an important role in cultivating a culture of excellence among leaders and senior management in the banking industry in Asia and the Gulf Region.

“Our programme takes the idea of sustainability very seriously; by looking at this particular three-year period, 2007 to 2009, we can see whose strategy has been built with the care required to remain strong through a major financial downturn,” says Peter Hoflich, Managing Editor of The Asian Banker. “The winners of this year’s award have designed real long-term strategies and implemented them; their institutions and countries have benefited as a result.”

An audience of top industry leaders from around the world witnessed the awards ceremony for 18 of the top chairmen, CEOs and industry leaders. Among the honoured guests were Neel Kashkari, former Assistant Secretary, US Treasury and head of the TARP Programme, Ronald Arculli, Chairman, Hong Kong Exchanges and Clearing, David Conner, Vice Chairman and CEO, OCBC, Han Mingzhi, Director General, China Banking Regulatory Commission, China, David Eldon, Chairman, Dubai International Financial Centre and Chairman, The Asian Banker Summit Advisory Council, Cesar Virata, Vice Chairman, RCBC Bank, the Philippines, and Banthoon Lamsam, Chairman and CEO, Kasikornbank, Thailand.

The award ceremony was held in conjunction with The Asian Banker Summit, the largest gathering of financial services industry professionals in the Asia-Pacific region. The Summit is held annually in different Asian cities, and this year’s was held in Singapore with the full support of the Monetary Authority of Singapore and the Association of Banks of Singapore.

Among the key speakers at the event are Neel Kashkari, Ásgeir Jónsson, Chief Economist, Arion Bank and author of the book Why Iceland?, Heng Swee Keat, Managing Director, Monetary Authority of Singapore, David Eldon, former Chairman of The Hongkong and Shanghai Bank and currently the Senior Advisor of PricewaterhouseCoopers, and Wee Ee Cheong, Deputy Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, UOB, and Chairman of The Association of Banks in Singapore.

• CIMB Group's focus on consolidating and adding overseas business has solidified it as a serious regional player

CIMB Group has won the strongest bank in Malaysia award on the basis of its regional expansion, with the group bargaining for good valuations on its acquisitions of Bank Thai in Thailand and its strategic consolidation of Bank Niaga and LippoBank, while later pushing through with impressive integration strategies.

In terms of its financial performance, the bank has also shown a strong 2009 recovery with a profit growth of 43.8%, providing a strong push

• Rigorous selection process chaired by David Eldon, Chairman, Board of Directors, Dubai International Financial Centre Authority, former Chairman of HSBC Asia Pacific.

The independent panel of judges is comprised of five notable international personalities:

Mr Cesar Virata, Corporate Vice-Chairman, Rizal Commercial Banking Corporation and former Prime Minister of the Philippines

• International jury uses comprehensive selection criteria

The Asian Banker Leadership Achievement Awards programme assesses the achievements of leaders in creating strong and sustainable financial institutions in the region. The award is part of The Asian Banker's commitment to promote the importance of leadership in the development of a sound and sustainable financial services industry.

The award of "Strongest Bank" was created as an adjunct to the Leadership Achievement Awards programme based on feedback to recognise the performance of the institution as well as its leader. The Asian Banker is pioneering this programme also as part of its Investor Audit programme, to help the investor and counterparty community in Europe and the US understand the features of strong domestic franchises that may not be fully appreciated on the global stage.

The Leadership Achievement award assessment is made on three inter-related criteria:

- i. Highest ranking in the "Strongest Banks Ranking"
- ii. Number of significant stated and achieved strategies by the CEO or chairman in the past three years that transformed the bottom line
- iii. Number and significance of difficult challenges managed by the institutions in the past three years

The Strongest Bank award assessment is made on ten inter-related criteria:

- i. A superior domestic franchise
- ii. "Strongest balance sheet" over a three year period
- iii. Strong fee-based businesses
- iv. Strong brand value
- v. Stable core and recurrent revenue stream over a three year period
- vi. Diversified revenue streams
- vii. Consistent ROE over a three-year period
- viii. Organisation's demonstrated ability to execute on strategy in responding to changes in the marketplace in the past three years
- ix. Strong governance structure at board level
- x. Strong execution capability at the management level

The Selection Process

The selection process began in January and ended in April, involving a team of four researchers. The initial selection is through a survey and desk research done by the research team at The Asian Banker. The identified candidates are then subject to further scrutiny through interviews with third parties, including local banking journalists and analysts who have had contact with the candidates, peers and third party reviews. The short-listed candidates are then submitted for a review by the board of advisors, based on a comparative evaluation done by the research team.
